

TOSHIBA MACHINE S. E. ASIA PTE LTD

Dear Customer,

Registration of End User and Die Cast Machine

Thank you for using Toshiba die casting machines. We appreciate your support. As our Japan implements the security export control for all spare parts belongs to the machines, we will unable to sell the spare parts and services to non-registered customers, as well as registered customer with non registered machines, means customer purchase the used machines from others source. In order to cause any inconvenient, we will registered your company as our valued customer and the used machines to our record by June 2007.

Registration for;

New customer require

- Company name
- Company address
- Responsible person
- Your customer.

Used machine require

- Machine type and specification check.
- Safety interlocks check with document and verify by customer.

For the registration fees of company documentation and machine inspection services, S$300.00 per machine.

For any questions, contact us.